

Davenport Institute for Early Childhood Development

You Can Be a Davenport Scholar!

If you are...

- A new student
- Currently working with young children children aged 0 – 5 in an early childhood program.
- Interested in increasing your skills and knowledge in child development and teaching best practices.
- Willing to work cooperatively with a coach via occasional meetings to discuss your successes, challenges, and work site observations.

Why Become a Davenport Scholar?

- Earn your Career Studies Certificate in Early Childhood Development for FREE.
- Participate in a program that provides coaching and support to assure your success as a student and early childhood practitioner.
- Create peer relationships through a cohort approach.

How to become a Davenport Scholar...

Contact, Kim Gregory, Site Coordinator Virginia Western Community College
(540) 857-7270 kgregory@viriniawestern.edu

Find us on Facebook @DavenportInstituteECD

The Davenport Institute is made possible through a generous grant from Ben and Betty Davenport and is supported administratively by the Virginia Community College System and Virginia Early Childhood Foundation.