

Appendix D: Faculty Evaluation Form—Second/Third Year Appointments

Introduction

This form lists criteria dean/supervisors will use to evaluate whether or not expectations have been met in the second-year or third-year of a faculty member’s initial appointment at the college. The expectations establish a demonstration and growth baseline for faculty performance that represents high standards with particular emphasis on performance in the teaching domain.

During the evaluation cycle, second/third-year appointment faculty will:

- Demonstrate mastery of a significant majority of the individual criteria in each domain
- Demonstrate satisfactory progress toward mastery of those criteria where improvement is needed
- Demonstrate, through mastery and satisfactory progress as noted above, that expectations have been met in every one of the four domains of Teaching, Scholarly and Creative Engagement, Institutional Responsibility, and Service.

Instructions

1. Do not use this form for first-year faculty; instead use the evaluation form for probationary first-year appointment faculty.
2. The dean/supervisor will communicate the expectations for second/third-year appointment faculty during the first two weeks of the first semester of the evaluation cycle (an in-person conference is recommended).
3. The dean/supervisor will explain to the faculty member the evaluation process, including the evaluation criteria, the data sources for the evaluation, how a summative rating is determined, and the implications of summative ratings of “Meets Expectations” and “Does Not Meet Expectations,” including potential impact on continued employment.

TEACHING DOMAIN

Definition: Creating a learning environment that facilitates students' acquisition of knowledge and skills in a subject.

Standard: For each component of the teaching domain (instructional design, instructional delivery, instructional effectiveness, and instructional expertise) the faculty member will demonstrate mastery of a significant majority of the bulleted criteria and satisfactory progress toward mastery of those criteria where improvement is needed.

Instructional Design

- For each course section taught, develop and/or utilize a course syllabus (course policies and course calendar) that is complete, accurate, and compliant with college standards.
- Distribute the syllabus to students on or before the start date for each course.
- Select high-quality learning resources, such as textbooks, bearing in mind appropriateness, necessity, accessibility, and cost.
- Design learning activities and materials that facilitate student engagement, active learning, critical thinking, and achievement of prescribed course outcomes.
- Design assessment strategies that effectively measure student achievement of prescribed course outcomes.
- Follow college policies and procedures for administering and encouraging participation in student surveys of instruction in all course sections taught for the purpose of receiving summative and formative feedback to inform revisions to instructional design.
- Analyze previous semesters' student ratings of instruction and other student feedback about instructional design, identify areas for improvement, and implement an action plan to accomplish that improvement.

Instructional Delivery

- Align course activities with target learning outcomes.
- Employ activities that foster faculty-student interaction.
- Employ activities that foster cooperative learning among students.
- Employ methods that facilitate active learning.
- Employ methods that develop students' high order cognitive skills, such as analyzing, evaluating, and creating.
- Employ required texts and other resources, including resources designated as required by the department or division, to achieve instructional objectives.
- Employ technology and other supporting materials to achieve instructional objectives.
- Respond constructively and respectfully to student comments and questions.
- Respond promptly (usually by the end of the next business day) to student phone, email, or other communications.
- Foster communication with students outside of class meeting times.
- Provide students with prompt feedback (usually within one week) on activities and assignments.
- Follow college policies and procedures for administering and encouraging participation in student surveys of instruction in all course sections taught for the purpose of receiving summative and formative feedback to inform revisions to instructional delivery.
- Analyze previous semesters' student ratings of instruction and other student feedback about

instructional delivery, identify areas for improvement, and implement an action plan to accomplish that improvement.
Instructional Effectiveness <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Conduct timely assessments of student learning, including at least one assessment within the first two weeks of class. • Deliver effective instruction as measured by student performance on learning outcomes assessments. • Deliver instruction effectively to foster student success as measured by student performance in related subsequent coursework and/or external tests or certifications (if applicable). • Follow college policies and procedures for administering and encouraging participation in student surveys of instruction in all course sections taught for the purpose of receiving summative and formative feedback to inform revisions to instructional effectiveness. • Analyze previous semesters' student ratings of instruction and other student feedback about instructional effectiveness, identify areas for improvement, and implement an action plan to accomplish that improvement.
Instructional Expertise <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demonstrate currency in academic discipline. • Demonstrate currency in methods of teaching and learning. • Demonstrate currency in instructional technology. • Follow college policies and procedures for administering and encouraging participation in student surveys of instruction in all course sections taught for the purpose of receiving summative and formative feedback to inform revisions to instructional expertise. • Analyze previous semesters' student ratings of instruction and other student feedback about instructional expertise, identify areas for improvement, and implement an action plan to accomplish that improvement.

INSTITUTIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Definition: Performing assigned or presumed duties according to one's role at the college. These activities support and advance both the mission of the VCCS and the college to enhance the effective functioning of the college - including the business processes (i.e. advising students, adherence to college and VCCS policy, collegiality, administrative duties, departmental supervision or assigned college community leadership duties, additional duties as assigned). If an activity does not otherwise fit into Teaching, Scholarly and Creative Engagement, or Service, and the activity is job related, then it should be counted in the Institutional Responsibility domain.

Standard: The faculty member must demonstrate mastery of a significant majority of the bulleted criteria and satisfactory progress toward mastery of those criteria where improvement is needed.

- Satisfactorily participate in the development and execution of Annual Performance and Professional Development Objectives.
- Demonstrate the knowledge, skills, abilities, and behaviors representative of teaching faculty excellence at the college and in the VCCS congruent with the performance of one/three-year appointment faculty.
- Publish office hours and make oneself available for consultation with students and advisees during those published hours throughout the semester.
- Fulfill responsibilities as an academic advisor to students (if applicable).
- Satisfactorily participate in required department, division, campus, committee, and college meetings.
- Submit accurate and punctual attendance reports, grade reports, and other required department, division, and college documentation.
- Satisfactorily perform assigned administrative, supervisory, leadership, or other non-teaching duties to include program review and assessment as required by SACS, other regulatory agencies, and/or ongoing best institutional practice.

- Demonstrate knowledge of and adherence to college and VCCS policies.
- Contribute to one's peer teaching community at the college.
- Maintain collegial working relationships with faculty, staff, and administrators.
- Engage in and document one or more institutional responsibility activities consonant with the number of years of teaching experience, with the number of years of experience teaching in the VCCS, and with the high standards of performance demonstrated by other faculty on second/third-year appointments. Activities may include, but are not limited to implement and facilitate the adoption by others of an innovative advising best practice.
- Take a leadership role in one's academic discipline or academic department/division at the college to include chairing a committee or leading a special project.
- Actively participate on ad hoc college or VCCS committees/projects.
- Take a leadership role in an activity or initiative that reaches out to staff, administrators, or faculty outside one's department/division to advance a cross-functional area approach to student service/success.
- Mentor a new full-time or new or returning part-time faculty member in one's department/division.
- Engage in activities that strengthen relationships with K-12 or four-year school partners.
- Support the delivery of quality instruction in dual enrollment classes in the faculty member's discipline through activities such as mentoring of dual enrollment faculty, course content review, assessment activities, and classroom observation.

SERVICE

Definition: Service is the quality participation and commitment to students, college and/or community organizations. Participation in these activities is not done for extra compensation, but is an expectation of one's activities as a professional educator. Activities in this domain are differentiated as follows:

- College Representation—Service activities that involve a direct connection between the faculty member who engages in the specific activity, and his/her position at the college
- College Citizenship—Service activities that are in support of college or VCCS initiatives in which the participant is not in a leadership role for the activity.
- Community Citizenship—Service activities that are indirect in which the employee is acting as a community resident who also happens to be a college employee.

Standard: The faculty member must meet the criterion below.

- Provide evidence of engagement in service activities consonant with the number of years of teaching experience, with the number of years of experience teaching in the VCCS, and with the high standards of performance demonstrated by second/third-year appointments. Activities may include, but are not limited to, student clubs/activities, attendance at college activities where participation is voluntary, service to professional organizations related to teaching or the instructor's discipline, or service to a community organization.

ANNUAL PERFORMANCE AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OBJECTIVES

Note: Each year the faculty member will meet with the dean/supervisor to review previous and upcoming Annual Performance and Professional Development Objectives. Information from those discussions will provide data points to inform evaluations in the four domains of Teaching, Scholarly and Creative Engagement, Institutional Responsibility, and Service.

- Document satisfactory attention to, progress on, assessment of, and reflection on Annual Performance and Professional Development Objectives established by the college.
- In collaboration with the supervisor, establish specific, measurable, attainable, and relevant Annual Performance and Professional Development Objectives for the following calendar year.
