

If you are planning to apply to VWCC's Radiation Oncology program at Virginia Western, you must complete the general VWCC college application, as well as the program application form by March 15th (other required material is discussed on the "Apply Now" page). This is also required for those interested in the Joint Venture site at NVCC. All applicants are encouraged to complete now, but no later than the deadline. Those applying for the Northern Virginia Community College site will also need to complete a college application for NVCC before March 15 (unless you are already registered as a student there).

You should complete the VWCC college application online at <https://apply.vccs.edu>

Select Virginia Western Community College as the college you plan to attend and your plan of study as Career Studies Certificate: Introduction to Radiation Oncology. Term activate the earliest semester you may be likely to register for any class at VWCC (if you would only be attending VWCC if you get into the program, choose the latest option closest to fall 2023). If you encounter any difficulty submitting your information electronically, please email the Enrollment Center staff at enroll@viriniawestern.edu or contact Chapman Hall.

For information about Financial Aid, you may call 1-855-874-6690 or email finaid@viriniawestern.edu On-campus staff may be able to assist you in Chapman Hall.

Pam Woody and Jalen Levisy are the Health Professions advisors at VWCC who will review your application material for completeness and determine if you will qualify for consideration. All application materials must be sent addressed directly to Pam Woody at VWCC in Roanoke. The HP Advising Team can provide advising assistance after reviewing your transcripts. In addition, you can address application concerns, advising questions and etc. by contacting a team of advisors at healthprofessions@viriniawestern.edu. Applicants for the Joint Venture at NVCC do not need to submit transcripts to NVCC to apply to this program. Application materials are submitted to Pam Woody at VWCC.

If you have questions or concerns about doing a Joint Venture program at NVCC, program content, clinical sites, technology usage, or time requirements you may contact the Director, Mrs. Conner, at (540) 857-6104 or send an email to mconner@viriniawestern.edu or to the Northern Virginia Community College site coordinator, Ms. Riley at [kd Riley@nvcc.edu](mailto:kd Riley@nvcc.edu). The Northern Virginia Community College campus holds information sessions during the year that may include Radiation Oncology. Those interested in doing the program at the joint venture site may wish to contact their admissions office to see if a session is scheduled that covers the Radiation Oncology Joint Venture program.
