Advising Day is intended for students to meet VWCC staff, ask questions, and learn next steps. Students will meet with advisors in small groups and will be provided with an individualized list of tasks for enrollment. These sessions are intended for students only. Parents and other supporters may attend the individual advising & class enrollment session with New Student Advising in spring. All dates are subject to change.

Physical distancing will be maintained. VWCC staff will be wearing face coverings. Student participants are encouraged to wear face coverings as indicated by their division requirements.
