

VIRGINIA WESTERN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Baking and Pastry AAS and Certificates

- The Baking and Pastry AAS and Certificates follow a specific sequence of courses.
- It is important to follow the sequence of classes listed in the catalog. If a class is listed as a fall class, it will only be offered in the fall; same goes for spring.
- Full uniform must be worn for ALL culinary classes both lecture and lab. Uniform information is attached.
- Mercer 29-piece Baking Kit is mandatory and can be purchased in the bookstore.
- All culinary classes are taught at the Claude Moore Education Complex in downtown Roanoke (behind the Roanoke Higher Education Center). Directions and parking information: Directions and Parking | Roanoke Higher Education Center - Roanoke Higher Education Center. Students can park free in lots #2, #4 and #5 with a permit.
- Culinary classes fill up quickly! Be sure to plan out your schedule with your faculty advisor before enrollment begins and register as soon as possible.
- Chef John Schopp is one of the faculty advisors for this program and can be contacted in his office at 540-857-6140 or email jschopp@viriniawestern.edu. He can also answer questions about the industry and give details about the content of the classes.
- The School of Business, Technology & Trades oversees the program. They are located in Webber Hall room 305, and the main phone number is 540-857-7272.
